

Graduate Institute of Social Work (NCCU)
Curriculum Map of the PhD Program

Required Courses
Seminar in Social Work Theories (3)
Seminar on Social Welfare Theory (3)
Research Methodology for Social Science (3)
Quantitative Research or Social Statistics (3) (Choose one)
Teaching and Academic Writing for Publication (3)*
*Required for students admitted from the 2025 academic year onward
Elective Courses
Methodology Domain	Research Methods	Qualitative Research (3) Social Statistics (3) Action Research (3) Autobiography Method (3)
	Practice Methods	Seminar on Program Planning and Evaluation (3) Postmodern Social Work (3) Empowerment and Organizing (3) Creative Expression and Social Work (3) Strengths Perspective in Social Work (3) Advanced Social Work Practicum (3) Nonprofit Organization Management (3) Radical Social Work / Critical Social Work (3)
Substantive Domain	Social Work Practice with Adolescents: Positive Migration and Development(3) Poverty and Social Work (3) Migration and Development(3) Seminar on Child and Adolescent Welfare (3) Long Term Care in Indigenous Communities (3) Seminar on Sociology of Aging and Social Welfare (3) Transnational Migration and Care (3)	